(Dy Comr's docket no: 699 of 18.4.03)

Note:—

1. In the detailed contingent bill of the District for October 1902 the Dy. Comr, Lehitaldung District, charged Rs 3-7-9 under "Charges for remitting treasure bags and chests" in excess of the budget grant under the head. The amount was disallowed. The Dy. Comr now reports that a re appropriation statement will shortly be submitted and requests that the amount disallowed may be admitted.

2. The Dy Comr had similarly incurred an excess expenditure of Rs 0-7-6 under the same head as shown in para 1 during September 1902, which amount was also disallowed (vide this Office docket no: 7L810 of 21-11-02). The Dy Comr has not made any reference regarding this amount.

3. Article 76 of the Limit Account Code Vol I lays down that "no officer may, without previously obtaining an extra grant, incur expenditure(s) in excess of the amount provided for contingent charges under the major head concerned; and when an officer exceeds the annual grant, he may, under orders of Govt, be held responsible for the excess."
